Congratulations to Ryan J. Wityak!

Peacock Myers, P.C. is proud to announce that Ryan J. Wityak, Attorney, was recently admitted to the New Mexico Bar and has joined our firm. Ryan has worked with us during summer breaks for many years, first as an intern and then as a law clerk during law school.

Ryan focuses on intellectual property and litigation and environmental, oil, mineral and natural gas laws. Ryan has extensive experience working with artists and jewelry manufacturers. He will continue to support the firm's clients in copyright, trademark and business matters.

Prior to joining us, Ryan worked with a company in Germany that bonded sputtering targets for solar cell and semiconductors. He also has experience in manufacturing canister filtration systems and drawing precious materials for wire applications.

Ryan is multi-lingual. In addition to English, he reads and writes in French and Latin. He is also conversant in Spanish and German. Ryan graduated with a B.A. from Christendom College, and a J.D. from Ave Maria School of Law.

We welcome Ryan to our firm as a licensed attorney!
