Introducing Justin Roth Muehlmeier

Peacock Myers, P.C. is very proud to announce that Registered Patent Attorney, Justin Roth Muehlmeier has joined our firm.

Justin graduated Cum Laude from the University of New Mexico School of Law and received the top grade in his patent law class. Justin has a B.A. in Physics/Astrophysics and a B.A. in Philosophy of Economics with a minor in mathematics. He was named a Presidential Scholar. At his commencement ceremony for his physics degree, he announced that he “would make it his career to use the law to inspire innovation and protect the rights of creators”. In addition, Justin studied at Saint Louis University, Madrid Spain, and at the Becari Language School in Oaxaca, Mexico. He is proficient in conversational Spanish.

Justin just completed a two-year term as Judicial Law Clerk to Justice Charles Daniels. During his time with Justice Daniels, he drafted bench memos, judicial opinions, and edited draft opinions from other chambers for technical and substantive error.

Justin’s ancestors have been in New Mexico for many generations. Justin is a classical Spanish guitarist and has played in rock bands. Listen to Justin play at <http://justinmuehlmeier.bandcamp.com>. He also enjoys endurance racing.

Please join us in welcoming Justin to our firm!
