

February 1, 2018

NEW MEXICO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES NEW INNOVATION VOUCHER PROGRAM

The New Mexico Economic Development Department has recently announced its exciting Innovation Voucher Program geared to help technology start-ups during the crucial early phases of development. The program is based on a competitive grant system. Eligible start-ups will be able to receive small amounts ($2,000 maximum) of funding during the critical early stages of the start-up process. Applications are due the second Friday of each month. This program is available to science and technology startups affiliated with the following programs:

ABQid
Arrowhead Center at NMSU
The BioScience Center
The Enterprise Center at San Juan College
FatPipe ABQ
The Joseph L. Cecchi Venture Lab at STC.UNM
Navajo Tech Innovation Center
Project Y Cowork Los Alamos
The Santa Fe Business Incubator
The South Valley Economic Development Center
Taos County Economic Development Center
TEAM Technologies
WESST Enterprise Center

For more information on this program visit the New Mexico Economic Development Department online at gonm.biz