Introducing Marco Henry Santamaria

Peacock Law P.C. is very proud to announce that Registered Patent Agent, Marco Henry Santamaria, has joined our firm.

Marco currently attends the University of New Mexico School of Law and will graduate in May of 2020. Marco has a B.S. in Bioengineering: Biotechnology from the University of California, San Diego; and an M.S. in Bioengineering from the University of California, San Diego (“UCSD”). Marco has authored and co-authored a number of peer-reviewed publications. During his graduate studies at UCSD he was a project scientist and lab manager for a Veterans Affairs research laboratory.

While in law school, Marco served as a student liaison to the Intellectual Property Section of the New Mexico State Bar and was President of the Intellectual Property Society at University of New Mexico School of Law. Marco serves as the Hispanic National Bar Association Law Student Division Representative for Region XV, which includes New Mexico and Utah. He also interned for a semester in the chambers of Jimmie V. Reyna at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.
