Peacock Law P.C.'s paralegals are world-class, impressing clients and other lawyers around the world with both the breadth and depth of their experience and their attention to detail. We are proud to introduce Lori Lamb, one of our most experienced paralegals.

Lori has been with Peacock Law for 13 years. Much of her time is in service to our law-firm clients based outside the U.S., filing urgent (often day-of) patent applications for clients across the globe. She is known for her accuracy and reliability, even in the face of extreme urgency, and her mastery of assisting in global filing strategies.

Lori holds a Bachelor of Arts in English with a concentration in Professional Writing, and a minor in Psychology from The University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. She was born and raised in Albuquerque, New Mexico but loves to travel anywhere with water/beaches. In her spare time, she is an avid reader and enjoys painting/crafts and playing golf with her family. She spends many a days and nights at the Little League baseball field with her 9 year old son.
