Happy Summer from Peacock Law!

We hope you are having a great summer! We thank you, our clients, who continue to prioritize your intellectual property needs.

Introducing: Shari Lipari

We are proud to start the summer by introducing the newest member of our team, Shari Lipari. Peacock Law P.C.'s Paralegals are world-class, impressing clients and other lawyers around the world with both the breadth and depth of their experience and their attention to detail.

Shari, born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, comes to Peacock Law with over two decades of paralegal experience in intellectual property, estate planning, accounting and contract management working for top notch law firms in New York and Florida and for big names including Johnson & Johnson and Morgan Stanley. Shari holds a B.A. in Sociology from Hunter College and a Paralegal Certification from Adelphi University. We are excited for her to join our paralegal team assisting with patent, trademark and copyright registration applications.

Shari is a proud mother and soon-to-be empty nester ready to take her career to new levels. Her son recently graduated from the University of Central Florida with a B.S.B.A in Finance and will attend the NSU Shepard Broad College of Law in Davie, Florida, in the fall. Her daughter recently graduated from high school and will attend the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, where she will play softball and study Pre-Professional Biology with the intent to become a physician assistant. Shari will celebrate her 23rd wedding anniversary in August. After many years of being involved in her children's baseball, football, basketball, softball, volleyball and weightlifting activities, she looks forward to focusing on her own fitness and getting some reading in.
