The New Mexico Women's Bar Association Honors Peacock Law Attorney Svitlana Anderson

The New Mexico Women's Bar Association ("NMWBA") has honored Peacock Law attorney Svitlana Anderson with the Henrietta Pettijohn Rising Star Award.

The Henrietta Pettijohn award honors a woman in the New Mexico legal community who has shown exemplary commitment to empower women in the legal profession. Ms. Pettijohn was the first woman to be admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court in the Territory of New Mexico on April 15, 1892. The Henrietta Pettijohn award was established by the Board of the NMWBA one year after the NMWBA was established in 1991. The Board honors a female attorney, each year, who has done an exemplary job that year of advancing the causes of women in the legal profession. The nominations over the years have included some remarkable attorneys and jurists in the state, and the selection process each year has always been an exciting one. This year, the awardee of the Rising Star Award is our own Svitlana Anderson.

Please join us in congratulating Svitlana! The New Mexico Women's Bar Association ("NMWBA") continues one of its primary missions - to provide scholarships for women taking the bar exam. More information about the award, the awardee, and the scholarships, which you can help support, can be found at <https://www.nmwba.org/>.
