Peacock Myers, P.C. is Welcoming
Law Clerks Again this Summer (May 2014)

Peacock Myers, P.C. has a long history of mentoring outstanding law school students. Each year we employ select students and assign projects designed to expand their legal knowledge, as well as their practical experience in a law firm.

This year we have four incredible law clerks joining our team.

Ryan Wityak (Business) has been a clerk with us for the past three summers while he attended Ave Maria Law School in Florida. Ryan graduates this month and will return as a law clerk while he studies to take the Bar.

Svitlana Anderson (Intellectual Property) is a licensed attorney in Ukraine and has been working with us for three years as a Paralegal. Svitlana will be attending law school this fall to become an attorney in New Mexico.

Lauren Ammerman (Chemistry) will be joining us for a second summer. Lauren is attending Tulane University Law School.

Nick Gibson (Mathematics) is attending the University of New Mexico School of Law. This will be his first summer with us.

This is an excellent opportunity for our clients to utilize the law clerks to research ideas, help with copyrights, etc. All of their work will be supervised by a partner at Peacock Myers, and the fee for using the clerks is at a very favorable rate. We believe this a great way for our clerks to gain experience, and our clients to save money.

If you are interested in doing a project where a law clerk could be helpful, please contact one of our attorneys.
