Los Poblanos Inn Named One of the Top 100 Hotels in the World! (December 2011)

Congratulations to our client, Los Poblanos Inn and Organic Farm. Los Poblanos was named by Fodor's as one of the top 100 hotels for 2011! Los Poblanos is joined on this prestigious list by hotels in South Africa, Belize, Spain, Jordan, Greece, etc. Los Poblanos was the only New Mexico property to win an award and was one of only 29 properties in the U.S. to be honored this year by Fodor's.

Los Poblanos in Los Ranchos is a cozy country inn on the National Registry of Historic Places. At Los Poblanos you step back in time, but enjoy all the modern conveniences. Set among 25 acres of lavender fields and lush formal gardens, Los Poblanos is one of the most prestigious properties in the Southwest. Guests enjoy a fresh breakfast incorporating ingredients from their organic farm. Los Poblanos is privately owned by the Rembe family and boasts historic architecture, antiques, and superb cuisine. The Inn has a cultural center, conference facilities, 20 new guest rooms, a saltwater pool, exercise room, and an expanded Farm Shop. The Inn provides its own toiletries made on-site with organic essential oil distilled from fresh lavender grown in field's just yards away. For more information, visit their website www.lospoblanosorganics.com or call (505) 344-9297.

Peacock Myers, P.C., is pleased to provide trademark services to Los Poblanos Inn.
